that of Miss Kate Schnaenberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Schnaenberg of New Brighton, Staten Island, to Edward Everett Bartlett, Jr., of this city, which will be celebrated in the Church of the Heavenly Host on Wednesday afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock. After the ceremony there will be a reception at the St. Regis.

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Genevieve Marie Amy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Julius Hyacinthe Amy, to Warren Kinney, which will be celebrated in the Church of St. Ignace Loyola on Wednesday morning, April 24, at 11 o'clock.

The bride has chosen her sister, Miss Isabelle Amy, as maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be the Misses Clemence E. Amy, Marie and Gladys O'Donohue, cousins of the bride, and Elizabeth Farrelly, Olive C. Owens and Elizabeth M. Bister.

Morris Kinney will be his brother's best man. Ernest V. Amy, brother of the bride, Randall and Beverly Keator, Sherburne Prescott and Robert V. Mahon will act as ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony there will be a breakfast and reception for relatives and intimate friends at the house of the bride's parents, 48 West Seventeenth street.

A wedding which will take place in St. Mary's Church at Tuxedo on Saturday, April 27, will be that of Miss Alice Andread, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Andread, Jr., of Tuxedo, to Woodbury Seamans, son of Dr. and Mrs. William S. Seamans of this city. The Rev. William Fitz Simon will officiate.

Miss Andread has chosen for her attendants her sister, Miss Gertrude Andread, who will be maid of honor, and the Misses Anzonnella Kane, Marie Seton, Emily Rushmore and Elizabeth Deming, who will act as bridesmaids. William S. Seamans, Jr., will act as his brother's best man. The ushers will be Griswold Lorillard, Clement L. Despard, Henry T. Fleitmann, John Tucker, Crawford Burton and George A. Washington, 2d. There will be a reception for relatives and friends immediately after the ceremony.

The wedding of Miss Katharine Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Francis Shaw, to Thomas Dickson, will take place at the house of the bride's parents, 31 West Fifty-fifth street, on Tuesday, April 30. The ceremony will be private and will be attended by relatives of the bride and bridegroom, but there will be a large reception afterward. The bride will have no attendants.

The wedding of Miss Valerie Worthington, a daughter of Mrs. Henry F. Worthington, to Langdon Haywood Roper, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roper of Pelham Manor, will be celebrated on Tuesday, April 30, in St. Barnabas's Church, Irvington-on-Hudson. The Rev. Royal Balcom, rector of the church, will officiate.

Miss Worthington will have Miss Gertrude Carrington of Chicago as her maid of honor and Mrs. Lowry Gillett will be matron of honor.

R. Clifford Black will attend Mr. Roper as best man, and the ushers will be Witherbee Black, Theodore Montgomery Hill, Walter Cooke, Jr., and Henry Haywood Fox.

Immediately after the ceremony there will be a reception for relatives and intimate friends at the Worthington home.

Another spring wedding which will be quietly celebrated is that of Miss Anita Merle-Smith, second daughter of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Wilton Merle-Smith. It will take place on Monday afternoon, April 29, at the house of the bride's parents, 29 West Fifty-fourth street. On account of mourning only relatives and a few intimate friends will be invited. The ceremony will be performed by the bride's father, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Henry van Dyke of Princeton.

The wedding of Miss Mary Van Zile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Van Zile, to the Rev. Gerald A. Cunningham, senior curate of St. George's Church, will take place on Monday, April 29, in Trinity Chapel at noon. The Rev. Herbert N. Cunningham of Watertown, Conn., father of the bridegroom, will officiate. Bishop David H. Greer will pronounce the benediction and in the chancel will be the Rev. Dr. John Mockridge, vicar of Trinity Chapel; the Rev. Dr. William H. Vibbert, ex-vicar of Trinity Chapel, and the Rev. Hugh Baker of St. George's Church.

The bride will have her sisters, the Misses Sallie and Harriet Lee Van Zile, as her only attendants. Raymond Cunningham will act as his brother's best man. The ushers will be the Rev. Malbone Birkhead of Tuxedo, the Rev. Roscoe Conkling Hatch of Watertown, the Rev. George Norton of St. George's Church, Charles Buckingham and Lawrence Whittemore.

Miss Olga Rohe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rohe, will be married to Harry C. Steneck in the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Central Park West and Sixty-third street, on Thursday, April 25.

The bride will have her sister, Miss Gertrude Rohe, as maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be the Misses Vivienne Kramick, Rosa Wolfman, Teresa Kuser and Miss Mabel S. Moore. George Steneck will be his brother's best man, and the ushers will be Charles Rohe, Jr., and William Rohe, brothers of the bride, and Harry Underwood. There will be a reception at the Hotel Savoy.

Plans have been completed for the wedding of Miss Edith Lewis Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Schmidt of San Francisco, to Carl M. Forsch of this city, which will take place on Thursday afternoon in the ballroom at Sherry's at 4:30 o'clock. The Rev. Dr. Stephen Wise will officiate.

Mrs. J. Mortimer Shear, sister of the bride, will be the only attendant. Albert Forsch will act as his brother's best man. The ushers will be Sidney and Herbert Forsch, brothers of the bridegroom, Dudley Fischer, Milton Frank, Walter Blum, Albert Solomon and J. Mortimer Shear. There will be a reception after the ceremony for relatives and intimate friends.

Miss Schmidt has been spending the winter with her cousin Mrs. Jefferson Seligman at 11 East Sixty-ninth street.

The wedding of Miss Alice B. Stanchfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Stanchfield, to Dr. Arthur Wright, will take place on Saturday, April 27, at the house of the bride's parents, 38 West Eighty-sixth street. Only relatives and a few intimate friends will be invited for the wedding ceremony. Miss Stanchfield will have no attendants.

An engagement of interest recently announced was that of Miss Jeannette Myers, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers of Hempstead, to Colgate Hoyt, Jr., of this city. Mr. Hoyt is a member of the banking firm of Colgate Hoyt & Co. with his father, and is well known in society. He was graduated from Brown University in 1905 and is prominent in yachting circles. No date has been set for the wedding.

The engagement was announced last week of Miss Eleanor Woodward, daughter of Mrs. Orator F. Woodward of LeRoy, N. Y., to Dr. John A. Victor, a son of Mrs. George F. Victor of 787 Fifth avenue. Dr. Victor is a member of the New York Hospital staff and a member of the Country, Rumson and Delta Kappa Epsilon clubs. He was graduated from Yale in 1908.

Mrs. James Speyer, who is now in Europe, will return to New York in time for the special performance by children of "Disraeli" which is to be given for the benefit of St. Mary's Free Hospital for Children in Wallack's Theatre on the afternoon of April 25.

net proceeds of the party will be devoted to the fund for widows and orphans of officers and enlisted men of the regular army.

There will be a concert to-morrow afternoon in the Plaza ballroom by the Harvard University Quartet under the auspices of the Altar Guild of the City Mission Society, which is interested in the welfare of the Episcopal Chapel on Ward's Island. The quartet is composed of Dean W. Hanson, Floyd Neale, Frank R. Hancock and Kenneth Hadden. Samuel L. M. Harlow will be at the piano and Lawrence S. Butler will sing French songs. In addition to the music Ralph Miss Mildred Gilbert Townsend and Miss Nathalie Jerrold Kelley.

There will also be a large chorus, including the Misses Edith Landon, Ursula and Caro Brown, Margaret Weeks, Genevieve Sanford, Margaret Harris, Noel Johnston, Frances Henry and others. Tickets and boxes may be had from Miss Lucy Margaret Roosevelt of 804 Fifth avenue.

Society women are giving their support to the concert organized by Miss Emory Destinn of the Metropolitan Opera for to-morrow night at the Waldorf-Astoria. The proceeds will be devoted to the research fund of the Berlin-Treptow Observatory, where Miss Destinn took a special course in astronomy. The German Ambassador and Countess von Bernstorff have lent their patronage, and among those who have taken seats and boxes are Mr. and Mrs. James Speyer, Mr. and Mrs. Otto H. Kahn, Miss Leary, Mrs. Charles H. Dison, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Marston, Prof. and Mrs. H. Fairfield Osborn, Mrs. Joseph W. Marsh and Miss Amy Townsend. The artists who will assist Miss Destinn are Dinah Gilly of the Metropolitan Opera, Edouard Dethier and Arthur Hochmann.

You've all seen the coronation. And the Durbar celebration. But we have touched with magic the lifeless photograph.

Here you'll find no simulation. But your friends in realization. Turned into moving pictures by the cynic-get-laph.

Members of the Junior League will appear in the two act musical comedy "Tags and Tatters" to be given for the benefit of the Music School Settlement at the Berkeley Lyceum Theatre on the nights of April 25 and 26. The music and lyrics have been written by Miss Grace Hollingsworth and the book by Miss Grace Henry, who have collaborated on former occasions. Mrs. S. Hinman Bird will have the part of the hand-puppet and Miss Jeannette McAlpin will assume the role of the heroine. Among others in the leading roles will be Miss Grace Henry.

If you have imagination. Concoct a new creation. Invent a comic costume from the attic rift-a-riff.

Then come in expectation. Of great fun and stimulation. And you'll not be disappointed by the cynic-get-laph.

Society is interested in the novel entertainment called "The Cynic Get a Laph," which will be given in the ball room of the Hotel Plaza on Tuesday evening under the auspices of Auxiliary No. 19 of the Stony Wold Sanitarium for the benefit of that institution.

The entertainment, which is being arranged by Miss Elizabeth Reid and Miss Mary Q. Meyer, will be a living moving picture show, in which several of the season's debutantes and young men of society will pose. The light from a regular cinematograph machine will be thrown on black gauze and the effect that will be produced with the living subjects in the "films" will be quite realistic.

Among those who will be in the "pictures" are the Misses Frances Thorne, Evelyn Hoyt, Caroline and Cora Weir, Isabel Hoyt, Marion Meyers, Eleanor Kissel, Genevieve Sanford and Evelyn Foster; Sidney P. Henshaw, Oliver Wagstaff and W. Davis Conrad.

There will be numerous other amusing are George Gilder, Worth Howard, Francis Kinnicut, Allen Look, Harold Stokes, Morton Newhall, John Marsh, Langdon Gillet, Horace Green, Charles Butler, Francis Colby and Alvin Baird. There will also be a living "Punch and Judy" show, which Miss Zoe Hannah has arranged.

A Highland fling will be danced in costume by the Misses Nathalie Kelley and Violetti Proctor, Edward Stevens and Watson Blair. Miss Margery Clinton has arranged a parody on "Kismet," the Misses Helen McLoughlin and Sophie Norris will sing and give monologues, and there will be a sketch called "A Trip to China" arranged by Miss Alice Fox Wardwell in which will appear Harold Otis, Raymond Ives, David J. Ely, Russell Cheney, Philip Lyndon Dodge and C. Douglas Green.

Guests are asked to come in costume. Programme girls, flower and cigarette vendors will be in fancy dress and will include the Misses Louise Baldwin, Sybil Davis, Christina Fisher, Anita Emmet, Katherine Crane, Mary Ostrander and Joanna Auchincloss. Some of those who will assist at the soda fountain are the Misses Eleanor and Mabel Hinton, Ruth Haskins and Gertrude Pader.

There will be general dancing after the entertainment. Applications for tickets may be made to Mrs. Throp M. Wilder at 81 East Seventy-eighth street or to any member of the executive committee, among whom are Mrs. George S. Franklin, and the Misses Katherine Crane, Helen R. Sloan, Ina A. Kissel, Eleanor Hinton, Alice Fox and Gertrude Pader.

Colby, Kenneth Boardman, Schuyler M. Meyer, Gardner B. Ferry and Harold P. Stokes.

A musicale will be given at Delmonico's at 3 o'clock this afternoon for the benefit of the Arthur Home for Blind Babies. A programme of unusual interest has been arranged and it is expected that a fairly good sum will be realized for the charity. Among the patronesses are Mrs. Ruth Helen Davis, Mrs. William R. Chapman, Mrs. Cynthia Westover Alden, Mrs. J. B. Greenhut, Mrs. Theodore F. Seward, Mrs. Edwin Knowles and Miss Sara Estabrook.

A bridge tournament will be given in the ballroom of the Hotel Plaza on the afternoon of April 25 in aid of the Ely Club Home for Young Women Students at 31 Lexington avenue. The home is maintained by a club composed of the alumnae of the Ely School and the proceeds will be devoted to the needs of the organization. Among the patronesses are Mrs. Frederick A. Johnson, Mrs. Holland S. Duell, Mrs. Cornelius Agnew, Mrs. John Jay, Jr., Mrs. Arthur J. Slade, Mrs. Alfred B. Thayer, William Kibbit and the Misses Gertrude Waldo, Anna Lee, Alice Lowell and Mary B. Ely.

The Alumnae Association of the College of New Rochelle will give its first dance at Delmonico's on Tuesday night, April 23. Among the patronesses are Mrs. Edward H. Hawke, Jr., Mrs. John J. Mitchell, Mrs. John G. Agar, Mrs. Samuel H. Burr, Mrs. Thomas Fenlon, Mrs. John Aspell, Mrs. J. F. Jennings, Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. Daniel Warren, Mrs. Andrew D. White, Mrs. Armand H. Mollenhauer, and Mrs. Hugh McCrossin.

For the benefit of the Catholic Protective Society there will be given in the ball room of the Waldorf-Astoria next Friday evening a bridge tournament and dance. The proceeds will be used in aiding the society in its work in courts, prisons and reformatories and in assisting discharged prisoners and persons on probation. Mrs. David McClure is president of the organization.

Among the patronesses are Mrs. Francis P. Garvin, Mrs. Cabot Ward, Mrs. Florence White and Mrs. Andrew Dougherty.

At the annual reception and dance of the Virginians last Wednesday night the Princess Pierre Troubetzkoy, was one of the patronesses. The Princess was formerly Miss Amélie Rives, and comes from an old family of Virginia. Although living in New York she is loyal to her birth State. The reception brought together many of Virginian birth who now live here. The society is the oldest of the state societies of this city.

Among the debutantes of next winter will be Miss Gertrude Hebert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hebert of 85 Fifth avenue. Miss Hebert returned from Europe a fortnight ago, having been a member of Mrs. Finch's party. She was one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Mary Tier Suthphen and Lewis Atwood Knott last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Taber Sears will give receptions at their studio on Friday and Saturday afternoons of this week. They expect to go to Europe early this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Reading Bertron will be passengers on the Titano next Saturday and will remain abroad for the summer. Mrs. Bertron has been an invalid the
